

THE AMERICAN SCANDINAVIAN SOCIETY

proudly presents its

ANNUAL WINTER CONCERT

We cordially invite members and friends to attend and hear:

Jane Thorngren, Soprano
David Coucheron, Violin
Kalle Toivio, Piano/Organ

HOST AND PROGRAM COMMENTATOR, ROLF STANG

Thursday, February 18, 2010 at 7 pm

KING OLAV V's CHURCH – The Norwegian Church and Cultural Center
317 East 52nd Street (Btwn. 1st and 2nd Ave's.) / New York City

ADMISSION: Members $15.00 – Non-Members $20.00
LIMITED SPACE REFRESHMENTS

We are again giving our annual Winter Concert, a sparkling musical kick-off of 2010 and a presentation of extraordinary musical artists.

Performers, David Coucheron and Jane Thorngren, are back in New York to perform for us. Jane has just returned from the Caribbean, where she has sung at the annual St. Bart's Music Festival for several seasons. David, a distinguished recipient of the A.S.S. Cultural Grant, is back from Norway. We congratulate David on having been appointed concert Master of the Atlanta Symphony. Since completing his Masters Degree at the Juilliard School (2007), he has been featured soloist with major orchestras on three continents playing his Stradivarius.

Before coming to New York, versatile organist/pianist Kalle Toivio, a 2009 recipient of the A.S.S. Cultural Grant, performed extensively in his native Finland, as well as appearing as soloist and chamber musician around the world.

Vibeke Steineger, Pres.

Please respond with check payable to the American Scandinavian Society, by Feb. 16

Send to: Harriet Nilsen / 85 East End Avenue #2L / New York, NY 10028

Inquiries: 212 861-9122

Name: _____ No. of Guests: _____

Address: _____ City/State/Zip: _____

Telephone #: _____ Total enclosed: $ _____